

CONSPIRACY GUY GETS VACCINATED

DOCUMENTARY STYLE - PRE TAPED

EXT. PARK - DAY

Conspiracy Guy stands alone in the park. He has his tinfoil hat and a facemask on. He speaks directly to the camera.

CONSPIRACY GUY

War. Sure people may "die" during them, but if you really look deep into history, war has never been the worst thing that humans invented. If you actually think about it, war is barely even in the top three worst things, considering what we know now.

CUT TO:

EXT. LAKE - DAY

Conspiracy Guy stands in a lake so that the water is up to his knees.

CONSPIRACY GUY

One thing worse than war: giving all students free lunch. Sure, it sounds good, but do you know what's in those lunches? A little bit of crab meat in every single bite. Why? Well, why don't you ask or soon to be aquatic overlords and find out. But I'll give you a hint- they want our children to submit to them.

CUT TO:

EXT. STREET - CONTINUOUS

Conspiracy Guy walks down the street as he talks. People stare at him because he kind of looks like a freak.

CONSPIRACY GUY

And something else worse than war?
The virus. Thats right.

CONSPIRACY GUY (CONT'D)

I'm sure you all know about the viral mass tooth decay that has been going on for the last year now, aka the reason that we've all been wearing these masks.

Conspiracy Guy stops. He is standing in front of a CVS.

But a little birdie told me that someone in here would be able to keep my teeth clean. I'm getting kind of sick of just guessing how many molars every person I come across has, so the sooner everyone can get these masks off, the better.

INT. CVS - DAY

Conspiracy Guy stands in the aisles. He is looking at toothbrushes. The Nurse comes out of the little side room.

NURSE

2:15? Is the 2:15 appointment here?

Conspiracy Guy shows his vaccine confirmation to the camera - 2:15.

(whispering)

Let's go and see what all of the fuss is about.

Conspiracy Guy follows the Nurse into the room. The Cameraman follows.

INT. SIDE ROOM - DAY

Conspiracy Guy sits and the Nurse wipes his arm down with a little alcohol pad. She looks at the camera. She is pretty uncomfortable with the fact that the camera is there.

NURSE

I've had people take selfies while they got their shot, but never anything like this. You must be pretty excited.

CONSPIRACY GUY

Well I'm here to spread the truth about the virus and keep my teeth safe, so um, yeah I guess you could say that I'm pretty excited.

NURSE

Well, I'm glad to hear it. Before we get this done, have you been diagnosed with the Coronavirus in the last 90 days?

CONSPIRACY GUY

Don't you mean the Cornonavirus?

NURSE

Excuse me?

CONSPIRACY GUY

The Cornonavirus? You know, plaques up your mouth, rots all of your teeth out of your brain so spiders sent by the Australian government can crawl into your brain and steal your social security number? Named after when you eat a fat yellow cob and the skin gets stuck in your teeth and you don't brush?!

The Nurse looks at the camera. She cannot tell if he is joking or not.

NURSE

Oh, I'm sorry, I- I'm just gonna take that as a no.

CONSPIRACY GUY

Yeah it's a no- look, I've got all my teeth perfectly clean. No spiders getting into my brain.

Conspiracy Guy goes to take his mask off.

NURSE

No! It's okay, I believe you.

CONSPIRACY GUY

(to the camera)

Now this is a woman who wants to keep her teeth safe.

Conspiracy Guy stick his hand out for the Nurse to shake it. She does so reluctantly.

NURSE

Right. So are you ready for your shot?

CONSPIRACY GUY

Lady, I haven't seen someone else's mouth in way too long. At this point, I'm ready for anything. Except for, of course, eating a box of Ritz crackers with Ryan Reynolds. We all know how that one goes.

The Nurse doesn't even try to make any sense of that one. She flicks the needle and brings it to Conspiracy Guy's arm. He closes his eyes.

CUT TO:

INT. CVS - DAY

The Nurse leads Conspiracy Guy back into the CVS. He has a bandaid on his arm.

CONSPIRACY GUY

So, do I have to come back again or-

NURSE

Nope! This was just a one and done.

CONSPIRACY GUY

Nice. My buddy told me the double shots swell one of your arms up like Popeye and you can feel your veins if you get the second in the same arm. Definitely don't want to make that mistake.

NURSE

Well, I guess your arm will stay the same size you want it to be.

CONSPIRACY GUY

Thank you so much for this Ms. Nurse. I'm glad you could help me show the world that one day, the Coronavirus may be a thing of the past.

NURSE

You mean the- you know what? Have a great rest of your day.

The Nurse waves and looks at the camera again. Conspiracy Guy goes to the the oral care aisle and starts grabbing, like, 20 toothbrushes.

CONSPIRACY GUY

(to the camera)

Well folks there you have it. I guess my birdie was right- there is a cure. Soon I'll be able to sleep without the fear of spiders in my mouth and know I'll be able to use my remaining teeth as a betrothal necklace to be used in the wedding sacrifice when the time comes. Anything to keep the crabs happy. Thats all for today guys. Remember to never trust a Shake Shack employee, and keep sharing my petition to make the government prove that Ariana Grande lives on the moon. Peace out.

Conspiracy Guy goes to pay for the toothbrushes. The camera turns back to the little side room - the nurse has been watching Conspiracy guy. She throws a needle into a trash bin and closes the door.

The cameraman approaches the trash bin and zooms in on the needle. There is one word on it - "CORNSTARCH"
